We're delighted you and your child are going to spend time reading together this winter. Color in or mark off a white circle for each book you read for a total of 30 books completed. Remember any books read are eligible no matter who does the reading! Books do not have to be from the library. When all 30 books have been read, return to the library with your log for an award and certificate. The final day is Saturday, February 13.
